STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a List of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licenses are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment thereto.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

ADMISSION as an advocate, - - - £50.

If previously admitted as barrister in Ireland, £10.

Exemption.—A person duly admitted as a barrister in England.

ADMISSION of any person—(1.) As a law agent to practise before the Court of Session, or as a writer to the signet—if £60 indenture duty paid, £25. If previously duly admitted in any inferior court, £30. In any other case, £85.

(2.) As a law agent to practise before a sheriff-court—if 2s. 6d. indenture duty paid, £54 17s. 6d. In any other case, £55.

An enrolled law agent who has paid the stamp duty exigible by law on admission to practise as an agent in a Sheriff Court, shall be qualified to sign the roll of agents practising in the Court of Session on paying the difference between such duty and the duty chargeable on admission to practise in the Court of Session.—36 and 37 Vict. c. 63, § 17.

Exemption.—Admission of person previously admitted as a law agent to practise in Court of Session as a writer to the signet, to act in the other of these capacities.

Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

BYE-LAWS FOR THE REGULATION OF HACKNEY CARRIAGES AND THE DRIVERS THEREOF.

At Glasgow, the twenty-second day of October, Eighteen hundred and ninety-one years, the Magistrates' Committee of "Police Commissioners, Glasgow," in virtue of the powers conferred on them by "The Glasgow Police Act, 1866," hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages, and the conduct of the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

A License shall not be granted to a person under the age of 18 years, or any person who shall have been convicted of theft or any crime inferring dishonesty.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Licensee's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Licensee of each Carriage, and the number of such Carriage, shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of each Carriage on an enamelled iron plate shall be affixed on the back of the Carriage, and be distinctly visible from the outside, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Licensee, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, and the License will then lapse and become null and void, if it has not already done so by expiration or suspension or revocation; and such Carriage shall not again be used as a Licensed Hackney Carriage until it has been relicensed.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall, whenever required by the Chief Constable, have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

Carriages let out for Hire at other places, or met with, if not engaged.

All Carriages let out on any station or place for hire shall be subject to the Stand Rules; as also Carriages when met with if not at the time actually engaged.

Carriages to take their places on Stands in the order of their arrival.

All Carriages shall take their station on the Street Stands in the order of their arrival, and at such distance from each other as that persons walking may conveniently pass between them; and when any Carriage shall be called or driven off any Stand, the Carriage immediately behind shall draw up to the place vacated, and any other Carriage behind in the like order, and when a vacancy shall occur at the lower end of the line, it may be taken up by the first Carriage from the next division of the Stand, or if the first shall not be driven to it, then by the second, and so on in the order of the line. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Arrangement of Carriages at places of Public Amusement and Assembly.

6. The Importer may be represented at the ship when discharging at the Elevator, to check the weighing, see the condition of the cargo, and give instructions as to its disposal.

7. The Charges for discharging, receiving, weight

ing, and delivering will be payable as soon as the grain, flour, &c., have been received into the Granary. Rent or other charges on goods in the Granary will be payable on transfer or delivery, and on stocks at the end of June and December in each year.

8. Before delivery of any parcel of grain or flour, all outstanding accounts in respect of Charges and Rent must be paid, or a sufficient deposit made.

9. Importers or Owners shall, when sending representatives or others to inspect or draw samples of their grain, give authority, in writing, to the Granary Superintendent.

10. The Trustees will employ competent persons to weigh grain.

11. An allowance of one pound weight will be made for each draft of 1000 lbs. when the grain is weighed in or out of the large hopper scales, but no allowance will be made when weighed in the small sacking scales.

12. In the event of grain becoming heated, or otherwise deteriorated, the Owner may have same turned by machinery from one bin to another, or transferred to the floor granary and stowed at any height from one to six feet, according to the condition of the grain and the space available.

13. In the event of any grain becoming heated, or otherwise deteriorated, it must forthwith be taken delivery of, on the Granary Superintendent deeming it necessary to issue an Order to that effect, and, if not removed within one week after the date of such Order, the Trustees may have it removed at the expense of the Owners.

14. An Advice Note will be issued by the Trustees under the hand of the Granary Superintendent, free of cost, acknowledging receipt of each parcel of grain, &c, received into Store, and the goods will be redeliverable only on presentation of the Delivery Order by the person named in said Advice Note. Such Note will not be a negotiable document.

15. No change of ownership of goods to remain stored will be effected except by a Transfer Order granted by the Owner being lodged with the General Traffic Superintendent.

16. When a Transfer Order is lodged for a portion only of a parcel, the Transferer or Transferee may, on request and at his own expense, have the grain weighed and placed in a separate bin, if and when available, but the Trustees shall not be bound to accept a Transfer of a parcel until such portion has been weighed over and separated.

17. The Trustees will, under the hand of the General Traffic Superintendent, specially authorised on that behalf, issue and deliver, at the request of the Owner of the goods stored in the Granary, or of the person entitled thereto, a Certificate of such goods having been so stored.

18. The Trustees shall keep a Register of Certificates and of Transfers, which shall regulate questions between them and owners or persons in charge of goods stored.

19. No grain or other goods or any part thereof specified in any Certificate shall be delivered from the Granary or transferred to another party except upon delivery to and cancellation by the General Traffic Superintendent of such Certificate.

20. For every Certificate granted there will be a charge of 1s., in addition to the Government stamp, and such Certificate shall be deemed a document of title.

21. No Delivery Order will be given effect to, or Certificate issued, until all claims and liens of freight, and all other liens to which the goods were liable whilst on board any vessel, and before the storing thereof, or in respect of Clyde dues, and of which the Granary Superintendent has had notice in writing, have been discharged.

22. No Delivery Order or Transfer Order in respect of goods stored in the Granary will be accepted unless it bears the date on which the Seller's responsibility ceases.

23. Any parcel or balance of a parcel of less than 30 tons shall be removed within seven days after notice from the Granary Superintendent should he require the silo or floor accommodation. The charge for storage shall be increased to at least 3d. per ton per week for any parcel remaining in the Granary after expiry of such Notice.

24. When grain is to be despatched by rail the Trustees will use every endeavour to secure an adequate supply of railway trucks and of sacks, but they will not be responsible for any delay that may arise through the failure of Railway Companies or Owners of sacks to meet the Merchant's requirements in this respect.

25. The Trustees shall not be responsible (1) for any delay, nor liable for any loss or damage, by fire, storm, tempests, civil commotion, the King's enemies, combinations, or strikes, or scarcity of workmen, labour disputes, labourage questions, or for similar circumstances, or consequences arising therefrom; nor (2) for loss of weight, or of measure, or quality, caused by insects or other vermin, or by heating or by any other process of deterioration from any other natural cause, or arising from flooding or damp, or latent defects in the building.

26. Printed Forms of Delivery and Transfer Orders can be obtained free on application at the Head Office, and at the Granary.

27. All Charges and Rents are payable to the Trustees' Collector at the Head Office, 16 Robertson Street.

For the promotion of temperance by the combined agencies of education, recreation, and restoration.

Agencies:—Domestic missions, medical lectures, Saturday evening concerts, Sabbath evening lectures, and Kilmun convalescent sea-side home.

Domestic missions are carried on in Gorbals and Garscube road districts. The female missionaries, by house to house visitation, and through mothers' meetings, cookery and sewing classes, bands of hope, and Gospel temperance meetings, seek to instruct the ignorant, reclaim the fallen, and promote the temporal and spiritual well-being of those living in these poorer districts of our city.

The City Hall Saturday evening concerts were started in 1854 as a counter-attraction to the pernicious influence of the public-house, and for sixty-one years they have continued to exercise a wholesome and elevating influence in the community, and have contributed in no small degree to the cultivation of a higher taste for, and appreciation of good music.

Medical lectures are arranged at which the facts and experience in reference to the effects of alcohol in health and disease are dealt with by some of the leading medical men in the city.

Sabbath evening lectures for advocating the claims of temperance and urging the Christian duty in regard to the drinking customs of society.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

Established in Glasgow, 1848.

Summary of Report for Twelve Months ending 31st March, 1914.

The primary object of the Society is to visit poor families in their own homes and give assistance in money, food, clothing, &c., to deserving cases; but no work of charity, which it is possible for a layman to undertake, comes amiss to the members—they extend a helping hand to the deserving poor, no matter what their religion may be.

During the twelve months ending 31st March, 1914, the number of families relieved was 4,363, comprising 12,953 persons. The number of visits to the homes of the poor was 50,445. Free dinners to poor children, 3,973. 117 persons were assisted to get work, and 111 sent to friends. Visits to reformatory boys on probation numbered 1,864. Through the influence of the Society 324 admissions were procured for persons to Infirmaries, Hospitals, Lanark Orphanage and Homes.

In addition to the other works of the Society, the members have the undernoted homes under their care:—Oak Street, Anderston, for working boys; Whitevale Street, for working boys; Market Street, for boys on probation; and Rutherglen, for destitute children.

The total income for the year amounted to £7,886 7s. 10d. This sum was practically all used in relieving the poor, only £63 13s. 8d. having been required for working expenses, i.e., stationery, &c. The main funds of the Society show a deficit of £233 12s. 11d. on the twelve months' working. The Society holds no property or investments. Its income is derived entirely from voluntary contributions, and is expended as received for the relief of the poor.

The work is carried on gratuitously by 1,052 members, all laymen, belonging to the various Catholic congregations in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. The books and accounts are audited annually by Messrs. Moores, Carson & Watson, C.A.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, St. Vincent de Paul Society, 92 Dunlop Street, Glasgow, or members of the Executive Committee.

Advanced age, urgent necessity, and respectability of character are indispensable. Length of residence, next to nativity preferred; but applicants must have one or other of those qualifications. RAILWAY BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FOR THE RELIEF OF RAILWAY OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, THEIR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, AND CHILDREN, WHEN IN DISTRESSED CIRCUMSTANCES.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

Scotch branch office, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway; W. Andrew, Esq., North British Railway, J. Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway, J. C. Christie, Esq., North British Railway, C. E. Cockburn, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, G. Davidson, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, J. Black, Esq., North British Railway, F. H. Gillies, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, W. F. Jackson, Esq , North British Railway, T. S. Mackintosh, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, D. A. Matheson, Esq., Caledonian Railway, A. Newlands, Esq., Highland Railway, R. Park, Esq., Highland Railway, T. W. Pettigrew, Esq., Caledonian Railway, D. Cameron, Esq., Caledonian Railway. Bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Square branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuites out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Duncan Macintosh, Glasgow & South-Western Railway, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow.

GLASGOW DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY,

28 Cathedral Square.

The Rt. Hon. the Lord Provost, chairman; James D. Borthwick, City Chamberlain, hon. treasurer; Robert King, hon. secretary; R. M. B. Colquhoun, superintendent; Miss Marshall, bible woman for female prisoners.

181 009 men and 96,061 women, in all 277,070 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our handsome building in Cathedral Square for the reception of the discharged prisoners and convicts has now been occupied by us since 1896, and its close contiguity to the exit gate of the Duke Street Prison makes it peculiarly suitable for the objects pursued by our Society. There they are met every morning at eight by our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is not given, the Society being prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who is disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the twenty-six years of its prosecution 29,239 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1914 work was found for 599 men.

Admission to Rescue Homes is procured for those women who desire to break with their old courses.

GENERAL NURSING ASSOCIATION.

23 Scotia Street, St. George's Cross.

This Association was instituted for the purpose of training maternity nurses who would attend, for moderate fees, confinement cases among the middle and working classes to whom the charges for "Home" Nurses are quite prohibitive. It is a well known fact that much of the excessive infant mortality which prevails in the city is due to lack of proper nursing during the critical confinement period, and the object of the directors in founding this association was to mitigate this evil as much as possible by providing thoroughly trained nurses to take the place of the ignorant and untrained neighbours and friends who have hitherto been the nurses in most of these cases. During the past year 61 nurses were trained at the institution. These nurses, under medical supervision, attended 423 confinement cases among the very poor and destitute in the district. The nurses pay a moderate fee for their training, but as the beneficent work of the association entails considerable expense which is only partially met by these fees, donations and subscriptions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the hon. secretary, John Rankin, writer, 138 W. Regent St. Directors, Stuart Cranston, Esq.; Alex. Hurll, Esq.; Rev. W. M. Rankin, B.D.; Angus Macphee, M.D.; C. W. Stewart, M.A., M.D. Hon. auditors, Gourlay & Deas, C.A., 128 St. Vincent Street.

THE GLASGOW ROYAL CANCER HOSPITAL.

(No lines required.) Founded 1890.

Hospital—132-138 Hill St., Garnethill.
Dispensary—132 Hill Street, Garnethill.

President, Robert Gourlay, LL.D.; vice-president, D. M. Scott; directors, Wm. Brodie, Robt. Gourlay, LL.D., John R. Macfie, R. D. MacEwan, Mrs Sturrock, T. Ogilvie Mathieson, D. M. Scott, W. P. Beatson, K.C.B., D.L., M.D., and Duncan Macartney, M.A., M.D.; assist. surgeons, Roy F. Young, B.A., M.B., B.C., and W. A. Campbell, F.R.C.S., Eng.; district surgeon, J. Lindley Carstairs, M.A., M.B., C.M.; consulting surgeon for diseases of the ear and throat, Albert A. Gray, M.D., F.R.S.E.; director of research, Charles Edward Walker, D.Sc., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.; assistants, Harold Whittingham, M.B., Ch.B., and F. J. Robinson; secretary and treasurer, Thomson Brodie, C.A., 156 St. Vincent Street; matron, Miss S. W. Torrance. Ladies' Auxiliary Secretary, Miss Patricia M. MacGregor, 165 Great George Street, Hillhead, Glasgow.

The objects of the Institution are, inter alia:—

(1) To provide with or without charge for the medical and surgical treatment of persons afflicted with cancer or cancerous diseases, and to provide and furnish advice, treatment, and medicine, to persons so afflicted, who cannot be received into the hospital.

(2) To promote the advancement of medical and surgical science with reference to cancer, by way of research and otherwise, and to provide for the efficient instruction of students, nurses, and others as opportunity occurs.

Funds are urgently required to carry on the work.

The Research Department has now been in existence for nearly five years, under the Directorship of Charles Walker, Esq., D.Sc., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., who is a recognised authority on cancer.

The annual cost of this Department amounts to about £900. The expense of the Department, with its select staff of workers, is of necessity heavy, and while the Directors fully realise the many calls made on the public, they feel that if the claims of this important work were sufficiently known, they would meet with a generous response. While an encouraging response has been made to an appeal, a considerable sum is still required to put the department on a satisfactory financial basis. The directors think it right to mention that the research funds are kept quite separate from the subscriptions given for the upkeep of the hospital, so that the expenses of the research department are in no way met out of ordinary revenue.

This is the only hospital in Scotland devoted exclusively to cancer, affording free admission, and entirely supported by voluntary contributions.

The objects of this institution are—(1) To attend to women in the hospital, and also at their own homes during their confinement; (2) to treat gynæcological cases, and to provide a training school in practical obstetrics for medical students, ladies' nurses, and midwives. A large and fully-equipped addition to the hospital, on the most approved principles, has just been erected, in which the obstetrical and gynæcological work is carried on. The old hospital building is now chiefly used as nurses' quarters. Patients in labour are admitted at once on application at the hospital without any recommendation. A committee of ladies visit the hospital and assist the directors.

There is a branch place of call at 409 St Vincent Street. Patients are not received into it, but are attended to from it at their own homes.

The medical staff, both on the obstetric and gynæcological sides, are the leading physicians in these departments in the city, and physicians attend to out-door cases when necessary in the various quarters of the city.

Miss Lawson, matron; John M. MacLeod, 149 W. George Street, hon. treasurer; William Guy, 146 Buchanan Street, secretary; Wm. Hill, cashier and house superintendent; Ben. B. Mackinnon, collector. Miss Beatrice Clugston, secretary, Ladies' Auxiliary 141 Bath Street.

The number of women who derived the benefit of this institution during the past year was 3882.

A Stewart; assistant at the dispensary, Dr. Ethel Crawford; medical superintendent, Dr. D. Campbell Suttie; matron, Miss Julia Simpson.

The objects of the institution are:—(1) The medical and surgical treatment of poor children suffering from non-infectious diseases; (2) the advancement and diffusion of medical science with reference to children's diseases; (3) the traning of nurses for sick children.

The institution consists of:—(1) an hospital at Yorkhill, near the University, containing 204 cots, which was completed in 1914, opened by their Majesties the King and Queen in July of that year, and now takes the place of the old hospital in Scott Street, which contained 74 cots, in which about 1,200 children were treated per annum; (2) an out-patient department or dispensary at 11 West Graham Street, opened in 1880, where over 12,000 cases, involving about 50,000 attendances, are treated per annum; and (3) a country branch of the hospital at Drumchapel, Dumbartonshire, opened in 1903, containing 26 cots, where about 100 children requiring somewhat prolonged treatment are cared for per annum.

Patients, who must be under 12 years of age, are admitted to the hospital in order of urgency. Accident cases and cases of urgency are admitted to the hospital at any hour, by day or night, without a recommendation by a subscriber. Other suitable cases recommended by qualified subscribers are admitted to the hospital as arranged by the Medical Superintendent, when there is available accommodation, between the hours of 10 and 11 every forenoon (except on Sundays). The dispensary is open every forenoon (except Sunday), from 10 to 11, for the reception and treatment of children under 12 years of age who are sick and poor and are not suffering from infectious disease. Recommendation by a subscriber is not required. The country branch is used for special cases sent from the hospital. Visitors to patients in the hospital are admitted on Sundays from 2.30 to 3.15, or if they reside in the country on Saturdays at the same hour. Visitors to patients in the country branch are admitted on Saturdays from 5.30 to 6.30.

The hospital, dispensary and country branch are all supported by voluntary contributions. The Directors appeal most earnestly for funds, as the ordinary income is quite insufficient to meet the largely increased expenditure necessary if the children of Glasgow and the West of Scotland are to reap the full advantage of all the resources of the new hospital. Subscribers are entitled to recommend one patient for every £1 1s. subscribed.

Subscribers and others interested and desiring to see over the hospital may do so on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 2 to 4 o'clock, but Wednesdays and Saturdays are the most convenient days. They should call either at the main entrance or at the Patients' Admission Department close to the main gateway and ask for either the Superintendent or the Matron who will arrange for their conduct through the hospital.

Since 1885 an art union has been arranged in connection with each exhibition, the aggregate sales effected in this way alone amounting to about £54,000.

By various means the Institute has done much to promote a taste for good art, and to foster its production in Glasgow and the neighbourhood; and in 1896 Her Majesty Queen Victoria created it a Royal body in recognition of the good work it has done.

Large Compound Bonuses. The Society being purely Mutual, all the profits belong to the assured. At the Investigation, as at 31st December, 1910, the large Compound Bonus of £1 15s. per cent. per annum was again declared. The profits distributed have been so large that the sums assured by the earlier policies are now much more than doubled in amount.

Absolute Security. The Funds at 31st December last amounted to nearly £6,500,000. The Valuation of the Society's Liabilities as at 31st December, 1910, made by the most stringent tests applied to any similar institution, shows that the SOCIETY'S RESERVES ARE UNSURPASSED by those of any other Life Assurance Office.

Liberal Conditions as to Foreign Residence, Loans to meet Premiums, Surrender Values, Non-Forfeitable Policies, &c.

Claims paid immediately on proof of Death and Title.

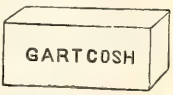
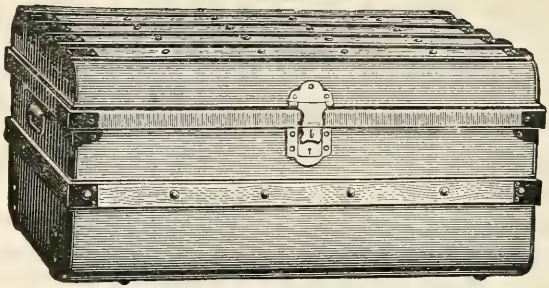
The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and sudden changes of temperature.



The GLENBOIG COMPANY purchased the Gartcosh Works (which were the closest competitors with Glenboig) for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers requiring a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer this brand with confidence, knowing that it is unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Marks—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the "brand" is clearly stamped on the goods, as imitation brands and misleading uses of the word "Glenboig" are regularly resorted to by makers of inferior goods.



Glazed Sewage Pipes, and the Glenboig Junctions, Traps, and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the surest preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.
